Dining with Diabetes

Learning that you have diabetes can be overwhelming at first. There are many new things to learn and it can be difficult to know where to start.

Dining with Diabetes is a program offered by Penn State Cooperative Extension. It will help you to understand some of the most important things you need to know about how to manage your diabetes.

Registered Dietitians or Certified Diabetes Educators will lead discussions addressing:

- Important numbers you need to know
- Planning healthy meals
- Healthy food preparation
- Physical activity

Dates: Mondays
October 5, 12, 19, 26, 2009

Time: 5:30 pm to 7:30 pm

Fee Per Person: $35 per person
Scholarships Available

Fee Per Family: $50 per family
Scholarships Available

Rebate: $25.00 rebate if you attend all four classes and follow-up

Instructors: Judy Siebert, RD, CDE
Carolyn Wissenbach
Extension Educator

Location: Fayette County Extension Office
34 W Peter Street
Uniontown PA 15401

Classes are offered weekly for four weeks, with a three-month follow-up class.

Each class offers:

- Food demonstrations and tasting
- Physical activity and ideas to take home
- Discussions regarding important information to help manage your diabetes

Lab test will be offered to measure HbA1c and lipid levels.

If you have been told that you have Type 2 diabetes, you will want to attend this class.
